CARD PARTY AND DANCE.

One of the pleasant events of the week was the card party and dance given by the Mountain Social club at the Eagles' lodge on Grant avenue. The party was under the auspices of the employees of the Ogden Packing and Provision company and was large and well attended. The program of dance selections was unique, each dance being named after brands and products manufactured and sold by the company. During the evening refreshments consisting of delicious fruit punch and waters were served. Rides on the street cars were furnished.

DANCING PARTY.

Last Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Partridge, 3244 Grant avenue, Mrs. Jack Quinn, Jr., and Mrs. Partridge entertained a number of friends at a dancing party. The rooms were made attractive with potted ferns and flowers and the decorations in the dining room were carried out in pink and white. The favors were white bon bon cups filled with pink and white mints and nuts. During the evening when dancing was enjoyed, fruit punch was served. At midnight a delicious luncheon was served. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joesten, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burk, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Huel Arnell, Mr. and Mrs. Alma Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Quinn, Jr., Steven Sweeney, John O'Neill, Mr. Cooper, Mrs. Florence Haring, Mr. and Mrs. Partridge.

LEAVE FOR CALIFORNIA.

Mrs. L. E. Wheeler Reid and little son, Bobby, of New York City, who have been visiting in Ogden with Mrs. Reid's mother, Mrs. Fred Packard, left Ogden today in company with Mrs. Packard for Los Angeles and other California points of interest. They will be on the coast for about four months and will return by way of San Francisco. Mrs. Reid was formerly Miss Lillian Packard of this city. Mr. Reid is an official of the Canadian government with headquarters in New York City.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Hutchens wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Ardis, to Omer Wadsworth of Bountiful. The wedding is to take place in February.

ENGINEERS' AND FIREMEN'S DANCE A SUCCESS.

One of the pleasant events of the week was given at the Berthana last Wednesday evening when the local lodge of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers entertained at a dancing party in the Berthana. Music was furnished by the enlarged Lillian Thatcher orchestra, special numbers being arranged for by the engineers. The program was unique in designation of the various dances, starting with Ogden, "All Aboard," and continuing to Frisco: "Oh Boy," "Let's Step."

MARRIED FOLKS' DANCE.

The married folks of the Twelfth ward are to give a dancing party in the ward amusement hall next Friday, January 23. Leap Year "stunts" will be in order and a splendid orchestra will furnish music for the dancers. Refreshments will be served. A good time is assured all who attend.

TURKEY SUPPER.

The employees of the Superior Cleaning company enjoyed a turkey supper last Monday evening. Following the dinner the evening was spent in playing games and enjoying musical selections. A merry time was spent and the employees hope to repeat the affair in the near future.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA TO PLAY IN OGDEN.

One of the splendid attractions, which Miss Mary Jones has been instrumental in bringing to this city to the supreme delight of all lovers of the best in music, is the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, which will play in Ogden at the tabernacle, February 11. There are eighty-five members in the well known orchestra and a fine program will be given.

LEAVE FOR BLACKFOOT, IDAHO.

Mrs. Lillian Coray and her young son Howard left Ogden yesterday for their home in Blackfoot, Idaho, after visiting in Ogden for the past two weeks with Mrs. Coray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Flygare.

W. O. W. BALL IMMENSE SUCCESS.

The biggest event of the winter, frantically speaking, was the ball given by Weber Camp No. 74, Woodmen of the World, last Thursday evening in the Woodmen hall on Washington avenue. More than five hundred people participated in the festivities which included dancing and card playing. The big event came as a fitting climax to the recent campaign for new members lasting thirty days, during which time over one hundred and ten new members were added to the order, the total membership now being considerably over twelve hundred. The social side of the order is receiving more attention just now than heretofore and is not only adding to the popularity of the lodge but is bringing out a larger and more enthusiastic attendance. It is the intention of the camp to give similar parties very often in the future and thus add as much as possible to the social pleasure of the order.

MRS. A. W. PUTNAM.

On last Monday afternoon the retiring officers of Miriam Chapter, and those who had officiated as officers from time to time during the year, availed themselves of the opportunity to express to the retiring Worthy Matron, Mrs. A. W. Putnam their appreciation of her true devotion to Miriam.

Chapter and the fraternal work of the order of the Eastern Star. Guests arriving came as a complete surprise to Mrs. Putnam, but her genial disposition could only assure the ladies that they were more than welcome. During the afternoon, refreshments were served, and a gift, which was a token of love and appreciation of the officers was presented by Mrs. Ralph Roberts.

Those present were: Mrs. Angus Kennedy, Mrs. J. E. Epperson, Mrs. A. B. Corey, Mrs. James McCullough, Mrs. George M. Foster, Mrs. Burton Dinsmore, Mrs. F. E. Nichols, Mrs. V. C. Gonnell, Mrs. J. H. Following the entertainment which will be held in the Woodman's hall, a dance will be held. A full pipe band in uniform will furnish music during the evening. Mr. McLeod reports that a direct descendant of Burns will attend the meeting.

FUNERAL FOR ALINE CHANDLER TROUT TOMORROW

ALINE CHANDLER TROUT.

At the general hospital, Pocatello, Idaho, on January 15, Aline Chandler Trout passed away. The deceased was born at Vincennes, Ind., on August 25, 1859, and spent the greater part of her life at Wilson Lane and Ogden, moving to Pocatello, Idaho, about a year and a half ago.

On December 29, 1915, she was united in marriage with Sidney J. Trout, formerly with the First National bank of Ogden and now assistant cashier of the Stock-Growers' Bank & Trust company of Pocatello, Idaho.

She is survived by Mrs. Boyd S. Chandler, her mother of Smithfield, Utah; Sidney J. Trout, her husband; Fay Chandler, brother of Kenneth; George Chandler, brother of Kenneth; Chandler, Helen Chandler, Leantine Chandler, sisters, and Kenneth Chandler, brother, all of Smithfield, Utah.

Funeral services will be held at the Kirkendall chapel at 2:30 p. m. Sunday. Interment will be at the city cemetery. The remains may be viewed at the Kirkendall chapel from Saturday to the time of the service. The host of friends that the deceased made during her life time all join in extending sympathy to the bereaved family in this sad hour.

Forest Service to Deny Permits to Foreigners

Recently deciding that a policy of 100 per cent Americanization would be observed by the forest service, announcements have been made that no further grazing permits would be given to aliens or non-citizens of the country. J. E. Scott has stated that while a further permit will be granted to aliens, that those holding permits at present would not have their permits abruptly revoked.

NEVER BEFORE

Have our stores entered a new year with increased volume that compares with our 1920 record. This is proof of the fact that people desire to save more than ever before. It is also proof of the increasing confidence that grocery users of Idaho, Utah and Wyoming have in our plan of square dealings. No other reward for our efforts is appreciated by us more than the display of confidence by those who deal with us daily from year to year. Our plan of selling groceries makes our stores safe, dependable places even for the children to trade.
